DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicants' Amendment filed March 25, 2008 is hereby acknowledged. Claims 1-4 and 6-27 are pending.

Response to Amendment

2. The rejections under 35 USC 102(a) as being anticipated by Lange et al. (Analytical Chemistry) and under 35 USC 102(b) as being anticipated by Thundat et al. (USP 5,719,324) have been withdrawn in light of applicants' arguments and amendments to the claims.

Claim Rejections

3. Claims 1-4 and 6-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

On lines 10-11 of claim 1, the phrase "the sense mechanism" lacks antecedent basis.

Double Patenting

4. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422

Art Unit: 1797

F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

5. Claims 1, 12 and 26 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1 and 8 of U.S. Patent No. 7,260,980. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the embodiment recited in claims 1 and 8 of the '980 patent is a species of genus claims 1, 12 and 26, and the species anticipates the genus.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 2-4 and 6-11 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

7. Claims 13-25 and 27 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

8. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: Aside from U.S. Patent No. 7,260,980, the prior art does not teach or suggest a method or system of detecting a chemical species comprising an oscillating cantilevered beam with a treated portion wherein the oscillation of the beam is altered when exposed to the chemical species and wherein a free end of the oscillating cantilevered beam taps against a mechanical stop that is coupled to a base end of the cantilevered beam and wherein the amplitude of the oscillating cantilevered beam is measured with a sense mechanism.

Response to Arguments

9. Applicant's arguments set forth in the response received on March 25, 2008, with respect to Lange et al and Thundat et al. have been fully considered and are persuasive. Therefore, these rejections of claims 1-4 and 6-27 under 35 USC 102 have been withdrawn.
